Raja Ampat, the last paradise

RAJA AMPAT

The 4 Main Islands are Named After 4 Kings

Local myth tells of a woman who found 7 dragons eggs in the jungle near her house. She took the eggs home and left them overnight. She was surprised to find that the eggs had hatched and four young kings had appeared. The other three held a princess, a ghost and a stone. The four kings are said to have inhabited the four main islands of Raja Ampat, giving it its name 'Four Kings'.

These are just 7 interesting facts about Raja Ampat but there are so many more to discover. If you'd like to find out more about this unique region of the world, leave a message in the comments box below.

Over 500 Coral Species Have Been Found in Raja Ampat

To be exact 537 coral species have been recorded in Raja Ampat. This is an incredible 75% of the species of coral found in the whole world! Also quite remarkable, 96% of all hard corals found in the enormous archipelago of Indonesia are found in Raja Ampat.

You could dive every day for a year and still be spotting species you hadn't seen before!

Payment Terms and Conditions

Passengers are required to pay a 50% deposit at the time of booking. Until payment is received, the booking will not be confirmed. Remaining payment of 50% is to be made 14 days prior to departure. Failure of payment within the stated period will automatically give us the rights to offer to participants on the waiting list.

Trip Cancellations

In the event of a trip being cancelled due to weather conditions or other factors beyond our reasonable control, deposits will be refunded in full within 10 business days. Otherwise deposits are nonrefundable. We recommend that all Passengers take out travel insurance to cover any losses that they may incur.

General Terms and Conditions

All Passengers undertake the trip at entirely their own risk. We cannot be held responsible (save where prescribed by statute) for any injuries, illness, loss of property, theft or damage occurring during our trip.

Safety is paramount at all times. We require all passengers wear a life jacket, when necessary, and conduct themselves in a manner which does not unduly endanger themselves or others.

Due to the ecological fragility of the islands we visit, passengers are reminded that animals are strictly forbidden and visitors must depart the islands as they find them, taking nothing and leaving nothing.

All day trips are subject to there being suitable weather conditions to make it safe to undertake, and, as such, some trips may have to be cancelled at short notice.

Please note that the trip begins and ends in Sorong and individual travel arrangements must be made to fly in and out of this city.

There may be occasions when weather conditions or unforeseen boat issues necessitate a change in schedule. In such cases, activities will be replaced with alternative options, and the safety of our guests remains our top priority. Please note that the boat is motorized and powered by an engine; it does not use sails.
